Membership Fees

Annual membership dues are required to maintain group liability insurance, offset shared club expenses, establish eligibility for rank accreditation, participate in special programs, engage in private instruction opportunities, participate in elections, and vote on dojo business. Holders of grade certification are required to contribute membership dues each January and maintain current membership to retain rank certification. Rank accreditation may be reinstated by submission of annual dues plus late fees for each delinquent year.

Iaido Youth (age 13 and under)	$100 ($40 PNKF/AUSKF, $60 AiShinKai/PNBA)

Membership Policies

Registration in AiShinKai programs is required to participate in classes. Fees are determined by the venue, and are non-refundable unless withdrawing before the first class. To be an AiShinKai member in good standing, class registration must be maintained throughout the year, regardless of the payment of annual dues. If unable to attend classes for an extended period of time due to unforeseen circumstance, you may request a formal sabbatical; however, eligibility for rank promotion, private instruction, and participation in special events will be made at the discretion of AiShinKai's headmaster on a case-by-case basis. Membership dues are used to maintain facilities, invite guest instructors, support club activities, purchase equipment, provide for group liability insurance, cover necessary office expenses, and to support education and outreach about Japanese martial and cultural arts.

Dues Payments (if required)

Make checks payable to "AiShinKai". Payments may be presented at any regular practice, or mailed to: Treasurer, AiShinKai, 18201 - 76th Ave W, Edmonds, WA 98026.
